Today we especially remember and pray for seafarers and think about the Church's ministry to them and their families through the work of The Mission to Seafarers and its kindred societies, The Apostleship of the Sea (Roman Catholic) and The British and International Sailors' Society (interdenominational).

Caring for seafarers around the world

Pray for the Humber Ports' Chaplains at Immingham, Hull and Goole.

Father, we give thanks and pray for those who go down to the sea in ships, and upon whom we depend; for their families and all who long for their safe return; and for the skills of seamanship and navigation which bring them in safety across the oceans of the world

Pray for those to be Confirmed in the Lafford Deanery this morning by the Bishop of Grantham.

Monday July 11 St Benedict God our Father, you give us gifts that we may work together in the service of your Son:

Bless those who lead, that they may be firm in faith, yet humble before you.

We pray especially for the Order of Saint Benedict and all those who follow Benedict's wisdom in their daily lives.

Bless those who teach, that they may increase our understanding, and be open to your word for them; Bless those who minister healing, that they may bring wholeness to others, yet know your healing in themselves;

Bless those through whom you speak, that they may proclaim your word in power, yet have their ears open to your gentle whisper;

Bless those who work in your world today that they may live for you, fulfil your purposes, and seek your kingdom first in the complexity of their daily lives;

Bless those who feel they have no gifts and are not valued, and those who are powerless by the world's standards, that they may share their experience of the work of your Spirit.

Eternal God, who made Benedict to become a wise master in the school of your service and a guide to many called into community to follow the rule of Christ:

grant that we may put your love before all else and seek with joy the way of your commandments:

through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Please remember in your prayers the Society of Mary and Martha based at the Sheldon Centre, in the Teign Valley. It is home to the members of the Sheldon Community whose life and work is at the heart of the charity's ministry of supporting people in Christian ministry and their families, especially at times of stress, crisis, burnout or breakdown.

O God our father, who through your servants Mary and Martha taught us to sit at your feet and to serve you:

Grant us your grace to fulfil the task you have given us and to draw us ever closer to yourself; Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those things which last for ever.

Eternal God, in Christ you make yourself our guest. Amid all our cares and concerns make us attentive to your voice and alert to your presence, that we may prize your word above all else; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Christian Listeners

Nicodemus, who is remembered today in the Roman Catholic and Greek Orthodox Churches. has been suggested as the 'Patron Saint of Listening'.

Like Nicodemus, we have the opportunity to go apart, out of the limelight, and truly listen to one another. In public forums, we can suggest, as Nicodemus did, that everyone be heard, be given the opportunity to speak without interruption or disdain.

Listening is three dimensional:

- listening to others.
- listening to ourselves
- listening to God.

Listening to others improves the quality of relationships in the home, church and workplace, learning to listen to ourselves helps us to grow in wholeness, and learning to listen to God helps us to deepen our spirituality.

Please pray for Christian Listeners and their ministry in the Lincoln Diocese.

We give thanks for the life and ministry of Revd Adrian Sullivan (Sully) who, three years ago, accepted the overall responsibility for the Stickney Group as well as the Marden Hill Group. Sully held a special place in the hearts of so many people and he is greatly missed.

We also give thanks for the refurbishment of St Jude's Church, New Leake and for all those who made this possible and rejoice that since St Jude's was licensed for marriages at the beginning of the year, we have had two weddings there.

Please pray for this group of parishes, for the small but dedicated number of worshippers and for all who accept responsibility in the parishes.

Pray for the staff and pupils at the three schools in the Group, Stickney Church of England Primary School, William Lovell Church of England Secondary School and New Leake Primary School.

Three of the new things / things going well:
Parent and toddler group restarted in one church;
A new home group for those in their 20s and 30s who attend church regularly;

Regular quiet garden days at a home in Bradley attracting those who don't attend church regularly.

Three of the hand-sized clouds on the horizon / sources of anxiety:

Churchyard and building maintenance issues recur with dull frequency;

Prospect of capacity building and resource allocation being drained from us as it is focused elsewhere in the deanery;

Implications for us of an external review of local ministry patterns being commissioned elsewhere.

With the passing of the years, we pray that the heroism of those who fought may not have been in vain; that our freedom may be maintained and more widely shared; that the skills of the members of the Royal Air Force may be used to safeguard justice and peace; and that we may never lose the vision of God's kingdom and his peace.

We pray for all those who serve our country in the Royal Air Force, especially those stationed at Royal Air Force Stations within our diocese.

We remember those detached around the world and their families; and for the ministry of the Royal Air Force Chaplaincy Service.

We bring before you the needs of those who still suffer as a result of war. Comfort the lonely, the disabled, the mentally ill and bereaved. We give thanks for all who relieve suffering, especially today we pray for the work of the Royal Air Force Association.

International Day of Peace: In 2001 the United Nations General Assembly designated today as the annual International Day of Peace; a day of global ceasefire and non-violence, when all nations and peoples are invited to commemorate the day in an appropriate manner. May peace prevail on earth...

Peace begins with the individual...

Lead me from death to life, from falsehood to truth; Lead me from despair to hope, from fear to trust; Lead me from hate to love, from war to peace; Let peace fill our heart, our world, our universe.

PRAY for the Anglican Peace and Justice Network (APJN) as it lifts up the prime importance of justice and peace in God s mission and provides resources to enable Anglican Provinces, dioceses and congregations to educate and advocate, wherever there are injustices.

USPG: Anglicans in World Mission:

- For staff in the UK, for its mission companions, and its partners around the world, during a period of restructuring;
- For the success of the new strategy in terms of supporting the mission of the church in poorer dioceses to optimum effect alongside the need to work to a balanced budget;
- For supporting churches within our own diocese, that they will be able to maintain giving as the expression of their excitement in belonging to a worldwide Communion;
- For the emergence of one or two key volunteers to serve as USPG Associate Mission Advisers in the diocese
