Enabling our next steps in faith

Discovering Growing Discerning Training Continuing

April 2024

Dear Colleagues,

Alleluia! Christ is risen; He is risen indeed, Alleluia!

Over the past week I've found myself humming - a lot! Humming turns into singing as I wash up, spring-clean the house, rip up cardboard for a trip to the tip, clear the ground for potato planting. 'What a difference a day makes..... twenty-four little hours...'

In twenty-four hours, the garage that I could hardly get into now emptied of unnecessary rubbish and ready for gardening; the pear tree turns from tight buds to full glorious blossom. Twenty-four hours turns a stranger into neighbour, a parent to grandparent, but also child to orphan. This Easter I've been especially struck by the twenty-four hours when the heartbreak at Jesus' death gives way to confusion and disbelief, then joy in renewed encounter. He is risen indeed, Alleluia!

This month's bulletin is packed with lots of wonderful opportunities. We invite you to put aside an hour, a day or more to join in God's unfolding process of transformation. Explore the theology of mission with 'Theology 4 Everyone', or deepen your prayer life with the next 'Lord Teach us to Pray' day. Resource yourself and your churches for 'Thy Kingdom Come' or sign up to be part of the next 'To Love and Serve the Lord' cohort in Quarrington - and much more besides!

Then, in the words of Psalm 90 we can sing 'Lord, teach us to number our days, with hearts full of wisdom to walk in your ways.' or if you prefer to listen rather than hum/sing, here is Steven & Clem Faux with their version from YouTube.

Grace and peace be with you,

Sarah Spencer

Managing Yourself When You Work From Home

Facilitated by John Truscott.

Tuesday 16th April 2024, 10am – 3pm

Venue: The King Room at Edward King House

This event is primarily for clergy in their first incumbency role, and delegates from this cohort will be given first dibs when booking, though it is open to all clergy who may still find working from home something of a challenge.

The day covers 3 broad areas for clergy ministry:

1. Big picture thinking on life and ministry using planning tools and the Ordinal
2. Key tools for effective use of time, including 'planning retreats', how to say 'No', and the use of a 'To Do Diary'
3. The challenges of home working, being honest about pressures on self/family, coping with distractions, and designing the study

“The aim of the day is to enable you to thrive rather than having your passion for ministry squeezed out of you.” John Truscott

If you would like to know more about John, a Church Consultant and Trainer, here's a link to his website where you can find hundreds of free resources on church and ministerial management.

Email alice.maikuma@lincoln.anglican.org to book a place.

If you are a member of the First Incumbency/First Post of Responsibility cohort, please book your place ASAP.

Ecclesiastical Law – Its Place Within the Life and Work of the Church

Tuesday 7th May 2024 ½ day morning event.

“Blessed is the one ... whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and who meditates on his law day and night.” Psalm 1:1-2

A training day at Edward King House led by Professor Mark Hill KC and Professor Norman Doe. Mark is Chancellor of the Dioceses of Chichester, Leeds and Europe and Consultant Editor of the Ecclesiastical Law Journal, and a former Chairman of the Ecclesiastical Law Society. His textbook, Ecclesiastical Law, is now in its fourth edition. He is Global Professor and Distinguished Fellow at the University of Notre Dame London Law Programme. Information on Professor Doe will follow.

This event is primarily for clergy in their first incumbency role, though it is open to all clergy.

To book your place: Please email alice.maikuma@lincoln.anglican.org

A New Clergy Ministry Development Review (MDR) Process Starting early 2024: Webinar Introductions

MDR should be an empowering and enriching process, an opportunity to reflect before God on your vocation and ministry, and to share the responsibilities of Office and its impact – positive and negative – on who you are as a disciple of Christ and deacon or priest, and on those with whom you most closely share your life; MDR is a spiritual tool for your personal and vocational growth and development.

We have made several significant changes to the process, not least in response to the Covenant for Clergy Care and Wellbeing, ensuring we place questions of how you are as a beloved child of God front and centre, enabling space in which to ask for support for you or your family.

Plus, in acknowledgement of our commitment to ministerial collaboration we now offer a list of clergy and lay Reviewers from which you choose who will accompany you in your MDR reflections; their role is to affirm, celebrate, encourage, and empathise with your circumstances and situations, and help you to challenge your thinking, so that you produce clear outcomes that will assist you in your ongoing ministry.

To hear more about the raison d'être, aims, and process of this new iteration of MDR, join The Reverend Jackie Johnson, (Wellbeing and CMD Officer), at one of the webinars occurring monthly throughout 2024. If you are contacted by Georgie Kirchen with the request to participate in a MDR, and you're not sure what to do, attend a webinar or contact Jackie direct on jackie.johnson@lincoln.anglican.org

The webinars begin at 7.15pm and end by 9.00pm. The next webinar is on:

30th April 2024

Other opportunities are as follows:

New Zoom links will be created for each date and circulated in the Training Bulletins preceding the webinars. There's no need to book, just join Jackie on line.

NB: Given she won't know who, if anyone, will attend, she will wait on line till 7.35pm approx., and if no one joins the webinar she will end the Zoom call and continue her evening with a spot of TV!

10 Top Tips

These resources provide quick, easy to read guidance on a range of aspects of the Christian life and point to additional help and opportunities to explore further. They cover topics as varied as leading intercessions and maximising the efficiency of your church energy use.

10 TOP TIPS Participating in Public Worship

Leading Intercessions

Leading others in prayer is a vital ministry of the Church. Jesus teaches us the importance of praying together. This togetherness is not just about being in the same place at the same time – it's about a harmony of intention. There is an important difference between individual, private prayer and public, corporate prayer. Leading intercessions serves the gathered people of God by drawing their prayers together.

10 TOP TIPS Daily Discipleship

Daily Devotionals

We can each benefit from practising a rhythm of prayer. Mother Teresa is quoted as saying "I used to believe that prayer changes things, but now I know that prayer changes us, and we change things." Time spent in prayer is never wasted. In prayer we open ourselves to God's presence, asking Him to enter our whole being, transforming us, inspiring our actions and informing all of our relationships. Prayer is our 'yes' to God.

10 TOP TIPS Business, Buildings and Burial Grounds

Open & Welcome

Church buildings are sacraments in stone, proclaiming the Gospel message 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Opening the door and offering a warm welcome can help others to come closer to God and to discover the treasure trove of heritage buildings in our care. With some careful thought and a few tweaks of low or no cost, many churches can daily be open and welcome to neighbour, tourist and pilgrim.

10 TOP TIPS Connecting & Collaborating

Starting Something Younger

All church communities should provide a safe and secure foundation where younger generations can encounter the love of God in Christ Jesus. As Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs" (Matt 19:14). When looking to start a new project, programme or event with families and younger people there are a number of things to consider, both practically and spiritually.

Steps to Intercultural Life and Mission

If you belong to a church and want to go on a journey which helps you reflect on how intercultural you are, and also put into practice some steps towards being intercultural, this is for you. Over four sessions you will be given an understanding of why intercultural mission matters, the kinds of areas you will want to look at, and be led on some exercises to help you develop. You will learn from experienced intercultural leaders and be inspired by three churches across the country who have put being intercultural at their heart.

Small and missional: thriving as a small church

In this 60-minute Zoom gathering you will hear stories of small churches that have made big steps in discerning God's call and making changes for the sake of mission. You'll also have an opportunity to network with others and to receive input to help you in your own discernment where you are.

All members of small churches are welcome, both lay and ordained.

Anna Chaplaincy

A 6-week introduction course has been designed for those preparing for a role as Anna Chaplain, covering information about the spirituality of older people and how Anna Chaplaincy responds to spiritual needs in later life. It is a good refresher for those specialising in pastoral care in later life, and also available to those who are already commissioned as Anna Chaplains. Costs: Currently the course costs £110 inclusive of all training costs, plus £25 (plus £3 P&P) for the Anna Chaplaincy Handbook which is essential reading. There are diocesan funds to support this training to Anna Chaplain or Anna Friend which meet these costs, whether taking on the role in a voluntary or ministerial development capacity. Rural Ministry Course

- 1st – 2nd May 2024: Yarnfield Park Training & Conference Centre, Yarnfield, Stone, Staffordshire. ST15 0NL
- 2nd – 3rd October 2024: King's Park Conference Centre, Northampton, NN3 6LL

The Rural Ministry Course is designed for lay and ordained church leaders across the denominations entering a rural appointment, and those already in rural ministry who feel the need for a 'refresher'. The two-day programme employs a variety of approaches including practical sessions, group work and workshops led by practitioners, and includes sessions on understanding rural contexts, mission and growth, leadership, farming and work with children and young people in the countryside. If you are a new or relatively new incumbent and would like to attend this Rural Mission and Ministry course, please contact your CMD Officer, The Reverend Jackie Johnson, jackie.johnson@lincoln.anglican.org as there is funding available to cover course fees in full. Those clergy with longer on the clock, (i.e. those no longer considered new to incumbency), can access CMD funding of up to £250.

Parenting as a Church Leader

Ministries

BRF are running a Parenting as a Church Leader day for parents who are also church leaders, on Tuesday 11 June 2024 - 9:30 - 14:30.

This is to be a positive, reassuring, and practical course, held over Zoom between school hours for ease of accessibility. It features video teaching from Rachel Turner, pioneer of Parenting for Faith, and includes discussion in small groups. BRF have run this day for several years now, and they regularly receive positive feedback.

New this year is their offer of up to 50% discounts when churches book as a group. (Non-discounted cost - £30). This has not only a financial benefit, but a community benefit, as clergy can talk through these topics with colleagues from their local area with whom they already have a working relationship.
