

“Seven Whole Days, Not One in Seven”

A Programme of Evensong Sermons for Lent 2026 – Sundays at 3:45pm

Sunday 22nd February

Daily Prayer – establishing a rhythm.

The Revd Clay Roundtree

Clay is the Diocese of Lincoln's Director of Ordinands and Vocations, and a member of the College of St Hugh team. Clay believes that the Church has within it a colourful palette of vocations that needs to be celebrated and encouraged. He has over 20 years of parish ministry experience and has written a book for Canterbury Press on the topic of Daily Prayer.

Sunday 1st March

Daily Reading – lifelong learning.

The Revd Jackie Johnson

Jackie is the Wellbeing and Continuing Ministerial Development Officer, working within the College of St Hugh Team. She has a passion to encourage and support the care and wellbeing of clergy and their families, and to nurture and inspire life-long learning for disciples – in whatever their God-given calling and vocation may be. Jackie has served parishes in Cornwall and Nottinghamshire and has worked as a Diocesan adviser and officer since 2013, first in Southwell and Nottingham and here in Lincoln since 2019.

Sunday 8th March

Daily Service – helping others.

Professor Andy Wright

Andy is a Reader based at St John's Washingborough. He was, for many years, Professor of Religious and Theological Education at King's College London.

Sunday 15th March

Daily Bread – perspectives on wealth.

Canon Dr Hugh Jones

Hugh has been the Warden of the College of St Hugh since its creation in 2022. Previously he served in parishes in Lincoln and Boston. He is passionate about lifelong Christian learning.

Sunday 22nd March

Daily Wonder – standing amazed.

Pauline Wiggett

Pauline worked for many years in cross-cultural ministry in Africa, the Middle East and Francophone Europe. She is passionate about making the Bible accessible to all including those with additional needs and is a lay reader with PTO.
