Governance across the Diocese of Lincoln

Governance operates through complementary synodical, trustee and statutory structures. The diagram distinguishes representation from formal accountability, delegated authority and advisory relationships.

KEY — Synodical representation; Formal accountability or delegation; Advisory or reporting relationship; Statutory or Synod-related body

How to read this diagram: Connections show representation, constitutional relationships, accountability or delegated authority. They do not imply that BCDT or Diocesan Synod manages parishes or PCCs.