

Questions for reflection on collaboration

Q1 - Using your 'sober judgement' what do you personally bring to a collaborative team?
How do we help each other in that discernment?

Q2. - Can you articulate the purpose you are together collaborating on? How might we go about advancing that articulation?

Q3- How do you personally see good collaboration to achieve an agreed purpose happening at parish/benefice/LMP/DP level?

Q4- What do you need from others to enable you personally to collaborate well?

Q5- What can the diocese do to support high functioning local collaborative teams?
