

Bible verses on giving

Here are some verses to read and reflect on.

Think about what God has given you. What is your response?

Pray that God will guide you as to the right way and level of giving, financial, time and in other ways, for you at this time.

All shall give as they are able, according to the blessings of the Lord your God that he has given you. Deuteronomy 16:17

I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me. Deuteronomy 26:10a

In my devotion to the house of my God I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver 1 Chronicles 29:3

I will render thank-offerings to you. For you have delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling, so that I may walk before God in the light of life. Psalms 56:12–13

Honour the Lord with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce. Proverbs 3:9

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Matthew 6:19–21

Seek first God's kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Matthew 6:32

Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back. Luke 6:38

If the part of the dough offered as first fruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; and if the root is holy, then the branches also are holy. Romans 11:16

On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in proportion to what has been earned. 1 Corinthians 16:2a

Now as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in utmost eagerness, and in your love for us – so we want you to excel also in this generous undertaking. 2 Corinthians 8:7

For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has – not according to what one does not have. 2 Corinthians 8:12

The one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 2 Corinthians 9:6–7

God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. 2 Corinthians 9:8

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it. 1 Timothy 6:6–7

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them to set their hope on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to be ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future. 1 Timothy 6:17–19

Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have; because God has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' Hebrews 13:5

Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. Hebrews 13:16
